The National Republican Call. The object and aims of the Republican party are clearly enunciated in the Call for a National Convention, to be held at Chicago on the 13th day of June, which we publish in another column. No true patriot or honest conservative can possibly find objection to it. It is of itself a National conservative platform-full of sound doctrines and clearly defined principles. All who are opposed to the present corrupt Administration, to Federal corruption and usurpation, and to the extension of slavery into the Territories, are invited to send delegates to this Convention. Those who have formerly supposed the Republicans would be ultra in their Call, must now be satisfied of their error. Those who have supposed the National Republican Convention will not adopt a conservative platform of principles, certainly find in this Call they have been laboring under a misapprehension of the intentions of the Republican party.

a On the platform of principles as set forth in this Call, we can only ask that our opponents meet us in honorable debate. these doctrines are not eminently national, conservative and right, let the people in the coming campaign so determine. But if on the contrary they are doctrines calculated to advance the well being of our common country, and the individual happiness and prosperity of this entire people, then let the American masses speak Jeff Davis, an Administration Dem .;

But the kitten, there before me. With his white paw, nothing loth, Sat, by way of entertainment, Sipping off the shinning froth, And in not the gentlest humor At the loss of such a treat. I confess, I rather rudely

Thrust him out into the street. Then, how Bonny's blue eyes kindled! Gathering up the precious store He had busily been pouring In his tiny plauafore, With a generous look that shamed me,

Sprang he from the carpet bright. Showing, by his mein indigeant, All a baby's sense of right. "Come back, Harney!" called he, toundly, As he held his apron white-"You shall have my candy wabbit!"

So he stood, abashed and silent, In the centre of the floor,

With defeated look alternate Bent on me and on the door. Then, as by some sudden impulse, Quickly ran he to the fire. And while eagerly his bright eyes Watched the flame go high and higher, In a brave, clear key he shouted. Like some lordly little elf.

"Santa Kaus, come down the chimrey, Make my moder 'have herself!' "I will be a good girl, Bennie," Said I, feeling the reproof; Ard straightway recalled poor Harney. Mewing on the gallery roof. Soon the anger was forgotten. Laughter chased away the frown.

And they gambolled 'neath the live oaks Till the dusky night came down In my dim fire-lighted chamber Harney purred beneath my chair, And my play worn boy beside me Knelt to say his evening prayer. "God bess fader-God bess moder God bess sister"-then a pause,

And the sweet young lips devoutly Murmured, "God bess Santa Kens!" He is sleeping -- brown and sliken Lie the lashes, long and meek, Like caressing, clinging snadows On his plump and peachy cheek; And I bend above him, weeping

LECTURE - The lecture by Prof. Youmans, on Monday night, was the most beautiful interesting and instructive we have ever had the pleasure of listening to, and we are mortified beyond measure that he did not have an audience worthy of the lecture and of the lecturer. Not more than twenty five persons were present. It does seem strange to us that there is no greater interest taken in those intellectual feats, provi ded at so great an expense, and trouble by the young gentlemen of he Ulyssean So

JOY TO THE NAKED .-- By Arnold & Co.'s advertisement in our paper this morning, it will be seen that this old and reliable house has determined to sell their entire stock of clothing at cost. This is no clap trap-they mean just what they say-and such an opportunity to obtain a cheap suit will probably never occur again.

This is the oldest and most popular clothing establishment in the city. And their goods are always selected with great taste, with a view to elegance and durability and those who patronize this house always receive the full worth of their mon-

NAPOLEON, Henry Co. O., July 7, 1858 DR. C. W. ROBACK, - Dear Sir :- For the benefit of suffering humanity, permit us to announce, through the columns of your Circular, the surprising properties of your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, which is a sure cure for Indigestion and Liver Complaint. We have several persons in town, who have been suffering with Liver Complaint and Indigestion, and notwithstanding that we have as good phy sicians as can be found in Northern Ohio. yet the disease buffled their skill. Consequently we commenced using your Pills, through and by the advice of our friend Mr. Brennan. We used the medicine according to directions, and are now full of life and hilarty, and our gratitude is equal to our improvement in health and spirits. When we take into consideration what we are at present, we feel like charge oursives of the sin of ingratitude, if we did not try to announce to the public the great bene fits of your Medicine. Therefore, we recommend to the public at large, the ex pediency of having recourse to your Medicine, and consequently, as in duty bound discharge what we feel to be our duty, in advising persons who are suffering as we have suffered, to make use of the only true and sure cure for the diseases already men-
